

Songs for Guys in a Comfortable Range

In this quick guide we'll be covering a quick and easy list of songs in various genres that aren't so freakin' high. If you started where I started, where middle C felt impossible to sing (especially at soft volumes without breaking into falsetto) then fear not! With a little practice you can easily sing the highest notes in a few of these songs and with a lot of practice you can probably sing everything in this list!

Songs with a Highest Note of Middle C or Below

“Til Kingdom Come” sung by Coldplay

“Norwegian Wood” sung by the Beatles

“Should I Stay or Should I Go” sung by The Clash

“Love Me Tender” sung by Elvis Presley

“Fake Empire” sung by The National

“Chantilly Lace” sung by the Big Bopper

“MM MM MM” sung by Crash Test Dummies

“Girl From Ipanema” sung by Frank Sinatra

“Sentimental Reasons” sung by Nat King Cole

“L-O-V-E” sung by Nat King Cole

“The Passenger” sung by Iggy Pop

“Make You Feel My Love” sung by Bob Dylan

“Knockin’ on Heaven’s Door” sung by Bob Dylan

“Blowin’ in the Wind” sung by Bob Dylan

“Ring of Fire” sung by Johnny Cash

Songs with a Highest Note of D4 or Below

(the D immediately above middle C)

“Chasing Cars” sung by Snow Patrol

“Can’t Help Falling in Love” sung by Elvis Presley

“Yellow Submarine” sung by The Beatles

“What a Wonderful World” by Louis Armstrong

“Swing Low Sweet Chariot” sung by Paul Robeson

“I Love this Bar” sung by Toby Keith

“All The Way” sung by Frank Sinatra

“Don’t Think I Don’t Think About It” sung by Darius Rucker

“I Only Wanna Be With You” sung by Hootie & The Blowfish

“Just Breathe” sung by Eddie Vedder (from Pearl Jam)

“I’ve Grown Accustomed to Her Face” from My Fair Lady

“The Times They Are A Changin’” sung by Bob Dylan

Songs with a Highest Note of E4 or Below

(the E immediately above middle C)

“I Melt With You” sung by Modern English

“Lucky Man” sung by Emerson, Lake and Palmer

“You’ve Got a Friend in Me” sung by Randy Newman

“Your Song” sung by Elton John

“All You Need is Love” sung by The Beatles

“Something Stupid” sung by Frank Sinatra

“If I Were a Rich Man” from Fiddler on the Roof

“Your Man” sung by Josh Turner

“Good Riddance” sung by Green Day

“Unforgettable” sung by Nat King Cole

“Dancing with Myself” sung by Billy Idol

“Daughters” sung by John Mayer